M—St. Mary | P—St. Peter | R—Resurrection

FROM THE PASTOR:

Hopefully you heard the news last weekend of the eventful five days of spiritual activity beginning this Saturday for our parishes.

Details of that are given below in a reprint of my bulletin column from last week. I'm looking forward to Bishop Thomas joining us in prayer and sharing with us his spiritual insights on the Eucharist. I'm excited about hearing the insights from our mission presenter, Fr. Hayes, O.P., on becoming closer to Christ.

The goal of the multiday event is to help us recognize and experience the Presence of the Living Christ among us. The meaning of these words are more profound than most people realize, even after they take time to study and reflect on them. What is being said is that the crucified, resurrected Christ is alive in our midst, and not just in a communal way, but personally to each person through the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Can anything on earth be more profound than this?

Our multiday spiritual event will begin Saturday and Sunday (March 11-12) with Fr. Stephen Hayes, O.P., preaching all the weekend Masses. After he finishes his marathon task, he will rest that Sunday afternoon while Bishop Thomas comes to Mansfield for afternoon prayers (3:00-4:30pm) in St. Peter church. During that time, Catholics from our Diocese will gather to sing, hear the Word of God, and be inspired by the message of Bishop Thomas. Then there will be time for quiet prayer in the presence of Christ followed by benediction. The goal, once again, is to help us recognize and experience the Presence of the Living Christ among us.

After plenty of rest and fellowship at the rectory, Fr. Hayes, O.P., will preach our 3-day mission Monday through Wednesday evening from 6:30 to 7:30pm. As is the case with any parish mission, each evening will build on the previous evening. The sacrament of Confession will be offered Monday and Tuesday evenings. Then on Wednesday evening, after Fr. Hayes, O.P. concludes his 3-day presentation, there will be a reception with refreshments in the parish hall.

With this being a tri-parish mission, each parish will host an evening as follows: Monday @ St. Peter, Tuesday @ St. Mary, and Wednesday @ Resurrection. For each location, the spiritual talks will be in each parish's church building. Attendance is free. Feel free to invite a friend.

Lent is the time for spiritual growth and development. Please consider attending these spiritual opportunities. They will be occurring during the middle of Lent, which is often the time when we need a spiritual boost to stay committed to our Lenten plan of growth. Please pray for the success of our efforts to help us all to better recognize and experience the Presence of the Living Christ among us.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Miller

PRISON MINISTRY CORNER

Lenten Blessings to our parishioners from our brothers at RiCl. We have had a powerful beginning to the Lenten season, with 53 men coming to Ash Wednesday Mass and 40 attending Stations of the Cross (held every Saturday afternoon during Lent, with six different formats of the Stations). Thank you to Fr. Kevin Moebius for celebrating Mass on Ash Wednesday. We greatly appreciate the tremendous support and spiritual guidance from our priests. On the first Saturday of Lent we prayed Stations of Mercy with Pope Francis, with our music including Attende Domine and Song of Mercy. We also had one of our brothers share a brief testimony of how God's mercy has been manifested in his life. Please pray for our brothers as they daily lift our parishes in prayer.

DID YOU KNOW?

The song Ashes we sing on Ash Wednesday and during the Lenten season was written by St. Peter's High School 1969 alumnus Tom Conry.
